[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO APRIL 30.

Impeachment.

In the Senate Sumner offered a resolution to the effect that Nelson having used improper language in the tribunal calculated to provoke a duel and disgraceful to the Court, he deserved the censure of the Senate

Hendricks objected to the consideration of the resolution

Sumner objected to Nelson's making any remarks except in explanation but the Senate allowed him to read letters bearing on the question of dates

Nelson then explained what purported to be an original letter, signed by Butler, Logan and Garfield dated March 5th, also a letter to the President by Chauncey Black, dated March 16th enclosing a copy with additional signatures

Cameron offered an order for night sessions, which went over

Evarts then resumed his argument He alluded to the manner in which the case had been opened by Butler for the Managers He had used invective for argument and had attempted to make it take the place of law and fact The Chinese method of warfare is the science of concussion—blowing trumpets sounding gongs, shrieks and groans in the streets, but it has been reserved for our day to see an attempt of another kind at concussion It was first directed against the stone walls of a fortress and was utterly ineffective and inoperative Not satisfied with that, the Managers who opened the case tried intellectual concussion against the walls of the Senate We have survived all however, and the power of concussion gave way to discussion [Laughter]

Evarts then quoted from Butler's speech to show what the latter understood to be impeachable offence He next proceeded to discuss what are termed chief charges against the President, viz breach of the Tenure of Office Act He quoted from the debate on the bill as published in the Globe to show that the Senate when it passed it did not look upon it as a penal measure which might result in the impeachment of the officers who might disregard it He contended that the breach of a statute was not impeachable and was not subject of jurisdiction here, but only before the great forum of the people upon the hustings If he should succeed in convincing the Senate of this he would be able to show that the Managers had attempted to mix what was purely political with what is essentially judicial

He proceeded to argue that the tenure of office bill does not cover the case of Stanton and the proviso of the first section of the law gives the President very clearly the power to remove cabinet officers

After fifteen minutes recess Evarts resumed his argument He proceeded sharply to criticise both Butler's and Boutwell's arguments He denied that it was an offence or a crime to endeavor to ascertain whether a law was unconstitutional The President as well as others had the undoubted right to test any law passed by Congress

The Senate adjourned at 4 o'clock, Evarts' argument not being concluded

Army Changes

CHICAGO April 29 Washington specials give a rumor that the 5th Cavalry, which General Emory commanded is to be transferred to other duty, and Rosseau will be appointed commander of the Department of Washington

Change of Democratic Programme.

NEW YORK, April 29 It is stated that the Congressional Democratic Executive Committee have unanimously passed a resolution requesting the National Democratic Committee to reconsider its previous action and issue a call for the Presidential nominating convention to meet in May or early in June It is probable that a Congressional caucus of all the Democratic members will shortly be called, for the purpose of making the same request

Heavy Forgeries

NEW YORK April 29—Col Nappers formerly agent of Santa Anna, was arrested on charge of swindling the firm of Powell, Graves & Co out of $40,000, through a forged letter from Reverdy Johnson He was held to bail in the sum of $10,000

A NEW THING UNDER THE NEWSPAPER SUN The Peoria Transcript of March 23d gives the following

The county of Henry, in the State of Illinois is just now blessed with the presence of a genius of newspaperdom. There is a printing concern at Galva, made up somewhat after the fashion of a law firm, with a Republican yoked with a Democrat Two weekly sheets are issued from the office, one professedly Republican, called the Galva Union, and the other professedly Democratic, called the Prairie Chief The outsides of the two sheets are made up from the same matter The insides are made up to suit the political tastes of the double-headed patrons of the office

It is one of the most convenient arrangements that can be imagined Whenever the editor is particularly bilious, he slashes away without regard to whom he is hitting, and after he is through publishes it in that sheet he thinks it is best fitted for If it is a little rough on the Republicans, he puts it into the Democratic issue If it comes down heavily on Andrew Johnson, he sticks it in the Republican half of the concern Then again compliments can be passed without number with very little expense. The Prairie Chief puffs the Union, and the Union copies and puffs the Chief, and advises all the Democrats in that section to subscribe for it In this way the amenities of political warfare are maintained The candidates advocated by the Union for Republican support are complimented and indorsed by the Chief, and vice versa

In this double-headed arrangement nothing is lost A strong partisan advertiser comes into the office and desires to advertise in a Democratic paper He is shown the Prairie Chief Another equally partisan desires to advertise in a Republican sheet He is shown the Union

Satisfactory answers are given to all questions in regard to politics "Is this office Republican?" inquires a Radical "Certainly sir, strongly Republican." In comes a Copperhead Is this office Democratic? "Most assuredly my dear sir We are very sound on the Democratic goose" Then comes a hesitating man "How are you on Andrew Johnson?" "Well, that depends on which way you desire us to be In the Union we are for impeachment In the Chief we are down on it" How do you regard the Pendleton system of paying the national debt in greenbacks? Well, sir, for that matter, we issue the Chief to-day, and we are for it To-morrow we issue the Union, we are against it If you are for it subscribe for the Chief If you are against it, subscribe for the Union. Both good papers sir "

We have seen nothing for years equal to the handy character of this Galva arrangement and we congratulate our friends up there upon their acquisition

REPEAL OF TAX ON BULLION —The Superintendent of the Branch Mint has received a despatch from the Director of the United States Mint, Philadelphia, stating that "a recent Act of Congress exempts all bullion from revenue tax, assayed since April 1st instant " The Branch will hereafter cease to collect the tax. This will be gratifying news to producers of gold and silver, and is strictly in the line of sound policy The imposition of a special tax of one half of one per cent on all bullion assayed, has always seemed peculiarly onerous for this bullion is taxed by the ordinary methods by the Government as income, and by the State as cash, and the special tax was really in the nature of a royalty, a discrimination against one class of natural products over all others The removal of the bullion tax will be likely to increase the product of the precious metals, without decreasing the revenues of the Government to an appreciable extent—S F Bulletin, Apr 2d 1868

WADE ON ECONOMY REFORM.—I am convinced that our Government expenditures ought to come down very nearly to the point at which they stood before the war The expense of the army and navy, in particular, are exorbitant and ought to be brought down promptly, without fear or favor We cannot stand this frightful system of public expenditures Its effect is demoralizing upon every branch of the Government, and, besides the people are heavily pressed by taxes, and won't stand it much longer. We must economize everywhere if possible, but especially at the points of our greatest expenditure the army and navy Then I believe there's another thing we've got to do. The party can't live without it, and what's more important, the country can't prosper We must stop this outrageous system of fraud and speculation The Government can't stagger under it much longer There was, as compared with the present state of things, but little fraud under Lincoln's administration

The new Methodist church, about to be built at Washington will be an architectural ornament to the nation's capital The design is gothic and the edifice will cost $200,000 It is to have a table and pulpit made of sacred wood brought from Lebanon, its portico will be paved with white marble and its painted windows will represent some of our first historic events or portraits General Grant and Chief Justice Chase are in the number of the Trustees of the church But the most original and perhaps the most attractive features of it will be an apartment for a library and reading room and another for lectures and social gatherings things which should belong to every church in the land, as its most popular basement and foundation.

Drew and Vanderbilt

[New York Correspondence of the Boston Journal]

For many years Vanderbilt and Drew have been fast friends in gigantic operations that have laid out the street they have been allies. Their first quarrel was about the Harlem. Vanderbilt won and Drew paid a heavy sum for selling short At the last election for directors of the Erie road, they consolidated themselves if they lose they curse "Old Drew" as he is called The usual cry of mad dog was raised, and Mr. Drew was left out in the cold He went to Vanderbilt and complained He said he could not afford to be kept off the board of directors, and Vanderbilt said he should be put on At the next meeting of the board the Commodore, true to his promise ordered one of the directors to resign which he did. "Now, gentlemen," said the autocrat "elect Mr Drew a member of your board " It was done "Now, gentlemen, elect Mr Drew your Treasurer." The gentlemen did it So far all was peace. The next step on the part of the Commodore was to monopolize the travel to St Louis. Mr Drew attempted to head off this monopoly He made arrangements with some parties out West to lay a third rail to secure a wide guage track to the Mississippi. Vanderbilt sent an imperious order to Mr Drew to desist telling him that he was poaching on his manor Drew said he should not withdraw. In his Doric style Vanderbilt said, "Then I'll make you" So the war began Except as he is backed by the Erie road, Mr. Drew is fighting this battle alone To sustain himself he threw the larger part of his stock overboard. It did not do what he expected. He simply played into the hands of his enemies, for Vanderbilt's friends bought it up as fast as he offered it for sale Mr Drew then issued the new stock of which so much has been said He did this to buy up the lines of road by which alone he could secure to Erie her share of the Pacific railroad business. Then came injunctions, contempt of court, orders for arrest, and other proceedings, that have employed so many eminent lawyers, and to whom it is said that not less than $250,000 will be paid in counsel fees To escape from close confinement in jail, Mr. Drew fled to New Jersey That little State is with him in the fight so is Albany and Central New York. Foremost in the fight is the Commodore himself Over seventy, he is the mightiest man in New York. Daring, resolute, defiant, few can match him He would not stop at twenty millions to carry his point Torrance, his English son-in-law has been called home from London to aid in the battle. Osgood, the receiver appointed by Judge Barnard, is also a son-in-law So is Horace F. Clark, the leading counsel Richard Schell is Vanderbilt's confidential broker Indeed, all the brokers are down on Drew, for all have lost money on the Erie, and blame Drew for it. No stock issued since the 7th of March is received by the brokers John Morrissey is Vanderbilt's right hand man While at Saratoga he had a fine horse that Vanderbilt wanted He said to the agent, "My horse is not for sale, if he was, Vanderbilt has not money enough to buy him " He added, "If the Commodore will accept my horse as a present, he is welcome to him " From that hour his fortune was made. He is worth over a million He is about to give up the business of gambling, so he told a banker the other day. For himself he expects nothing, but he means to save his son, he says, and bring him up to a respectable calling.

RUSSIAN FAMINE AND THE CRIME AGAINST POLAND.—Russia, the sweet ally of Italy, suffers from wounds which enlarge rather than heal—famine and Poland. In the northern and eastern part of the empire, the famine, and especially the lack of grain, is so great that there will be no sowing in many provinces for lack of seed, which would also be the case in Algeria, if they were not now busied in preventing such a disaster by sending seed to every province and every village, for all are destitute Poland still moves in her deadly agony, and incites undying hates against Russia throughout all Europe She has sent to all the European Powers a sort of dying message—a book with a black cover, lettered in white, in the style of diplomatic documents, containing the record of her wrongs She is also publishing in nearly all the papers a summary of the recent proscriptions very much as follows. Official statistics of the Polish insurrection in 1862 killed in battle, 33,000; hung by the Russians, 1,500, sent to Siberia, 10,000; sent to other parts of Russia, the Ural Mountains, &c., 40,000, incorporated in the Russian army, 2,500, imprisoned, 32,000 Total number of victims, 132,000 Now these victims have relatives and friends scattered all over the world, and not one of them fails to pay the Czar that mortal hate due to him who has crushed their country These Poles have formed associations in France, England, Austria, Turkey, and only await a war to begin again the struggle of 1862, So great is their patriotic ardor that they had organized themselves into a legion in the Danubian principalities on the very frontiers of Russia, from which position Russia has just caused their expulsion

One of the organs of the Democracy is the new journal started at St Louis, called The Repudiator. Listen to its advice .

"But while Mr Pendleton and Gen. Singleton have taken a step in the right direction, they both stop short of the real merits and justice of the case Why would they pay the so-called debt in greenbacks, which are below par ? We have already said, because they feel an inward consciousness that it would be unjust to the people to require them to pay it at par, in gold. But why unjust ? Because the so called debt is a fraud. But, if it be a fraud, why pay it at all ? It is clear that all those who propose to pay the so-called debt in depreciated greenbacks base their proposition upon the inward consciousness that it represents a grievous wrong, and that it has no just claim of recognition. This fact being conceded, should we not show ourselves base cowards and truckling sycophants to pay it at all?"

A writer in Once a Week tells this story "A friend of mine was riding on the outside of a Devon coach from Barnstable to Ilfracombe, when the driver said to him, 'I've had a coin guv me to-day 200 year old Did you ever see a coin 200 year old?' 'Oh yes, I have one myself 2 000 years old 'Ah,' said the driver have ye? and spoke no more during the rest of the journey When the coach arrived at its destination, the driver came up to my friend with an intensely satisfied air, and said, 'I told you as we drove along I had a coin 200 year old Yes ' 'And you said to me as you had one 2 000 year old Yes, so I have 'Now it's a lie ' What do you mean by that?' What do I mean? Why its only 1867 now And they tell me that the schoolmaster is abroad."

"Prejudging" the Case

Many of the partisans of Johnson have committed the folly of declaring that certain Senators ought not to sit as judges in the court of impeachment because it is pretended that they have "prejudged" the case. Not long ago the "editorial correspondent" of the San Francisco Bulletin, "J W J," writing from Washington, claimed that no Senator who had voted on the passage of the civil tenure act should be allowed to vote on impeachment until the question of the constitutionality of the law was settled by the Supreme Court! His doctrine was that in voting for the bill they had virtually decided the case against the President, and therefore could not sit as impartial judges. In Butler's speech before the Court, all carping objections of this description are fully answered. The trial of Judge Pickering which took place in 1804, had been postponed for one session, and three Senators, one from Maryland, one from Vermont and one from New York, who had all been members of the House during the preceding session and there voted in favor of impeaching Pickering, sat and voted on every question during the trial, and finally voted to convict the accused—the Senate by a vote of 19 to 7 distinctly affirming their right so to do. So in the trial of Judge Chase in 1805, two Senators, Smith and Mitchell, of New York who had been members of the House when the articles were found, voted on the whole without question. The same was true of three Senators in the time of Judge Addison who while members of the House had voted to impeach him. During the trial of Warren Hastings before the English House of Peers, there had been more than 180 changes by death, succession and creation, among those who were his judges, and many who pronounced the verdict had not heard either the opening of the case or much of the evidence. These precedents are a complete answer to those who allege that certain Senators have "prejudged" Johnson's case, and that they ought not to sit on the trial. Butler showed that every Senator had a right to express his opinions freely in the case after the accusation was brought, and cited a letter written by Reverdy Johnson after the articles were presented by the House, holding that he, as Senator, should sustain the President in his trial. If those Senators who are the President's political friends can "prejudge" the case in this way, why should [illegible] to express an opposite [illegible] be denied!

A [illegible] Pair

The gross fabrications and miserable, palpable untruths in the Herald of yesterday indicate that Beriah has resumed work as usual. Speaking of this county he says:

> The Union majority against us two years ago on the county ticket, was one hundred and fifty five. We have more than wiped out that majority by [illegible] from the Republican party since that time.

Not twenty persons can be found in the whole county who have changed from the Union to the Democratic party since two years ago, and the loss of the few who have gone over are fully counterbalanced by known changes in our favor. A suitable reward will be given for the names of all persons, exceeding the number of twenty, who have gone over from the Union party to the Copperhead Democracy. Beriah continues in this style:

> The indications are that Clatsop will be redeemed from Radical control at the coming election. Our friends expect to be able to elect the entire county ticket by a handsome majority.

We see men every week who know every voter in Clatsop county, and they all agree in saying that the vote of the county will not be a dozen either way from the vote of two years ago. Not an instance is known of a change from the Union party to the Copperheads. We may add here as another specimen of the truthfulness of Beriah, that he stated in a speech in Clatsop county recently that four fifths of the soldiers who put down the rebellion were Democrats. He and Rev Joseph Smith are an amulous pair of brothers in the cause of falsehood.

The "Democracy" are evidently in a tight place in the matter of Presidential candidates. They are afraid to nominate Pendleton or Seymour, for either would insure a bolt on the bond question. They hesitate about McClellan and Hancock and are trying to see if they cannot do better. Hendricks and Hoffman are not popular cards, Johnson is under temporary difficulties, and they cannot wait for Jeff Davis to emerge the cloud which has for a few years obscured his sterling patriotism. There are also in a squabble about the time and place of holding their Convention, and taken all together things don't work smooth at all.

The "organ" has words of cheer for that Democratic Society known as the murderous "Kuklux Klan." Pleased with its atrocious and bloody work, that paper says to the Klan, "we wish you God speed and may success crown your efforts." This encouragement is quite as hearty as that which was afforded by the Democratic press during the rebellion to the conspirators who tried to burn Chicago and release the rebel prisoners and reminds one of the aid and comfort which the editor of the "organ" rendered to the treasonable Democratic "57" Society in California in 1863.

We find in a Copperhead paper a sneering remark about a supposed Union man having been convicted of crime in this county and sent to the penitentiary. Perhaps that paper would like to have a little inquiry instituted as to the politics of the inmates of the establishment under the control of Major Berry. Less than a year ago such an inquiry showed that of the 62 convicts 57 were Democrats who were devotedly attached to the time-honored principles. Throughout all the prisons in the country about the same proportion is maintained.

No Harm Done—No Rights Forfeited.

We find the following in the Lafayette Courier and give it as an exposition of the Democratic theory of reconstruction:

> There is a plain sensible reasonable theory that the Democracy endorses, and that ought to meet the approbation of all: that the ordinances of secession were null and void, that the rebel governments founded upon them, were equally null and void: that therefore, upon the crushing out of the rebel power the people had but to meet at the polls as provided for by their constitutional laws, fill up the offices as therein provided and resume their former status as they were before the rebellion stopped their machinery for a time.

This is a very convenient theory for Democratic purposes. But let it be observed in the first place that when the ordinances of secession were passed no Democrat held that they were "null and void." They all took the ground that those States were thereby carried out of the Union. Their language was that certain States had revoked their grants of power, that they had resumed the authority which they had delegated to the Government of the Union, and that though this action might not be exactly right (they would not discuss this point) the Government had no constitutional power to force them back. This was the basis of every argument against "coercion" with which we were made so familiar seven or eight years ago. The Democratic idea therefore is, first that a State may secede at pleasure, or what comes to the same thing, that the General Government has no remedy against secession, and second, that if the Government does violate the Constitution by resorting to coercion and such State cannot maintain its pretensions by force of arms, it may resume its place in the Union without any forfeiture of rights on the part of those who had engaged in rebellion, just as if nothing whatever had occurred. On the Democratic theory States can go out of the Union and come back at their own convenience and on their own terms. It is a "free-love" arrangement with nothing binding about it.

Did we not know that there were those who sympathized with the rebellion and desired its success it would be inconceivable that there should be any who would now hold that no penalties, no forfeitures, no disabilities could follow this unprovoked bloody and demoniacal attempt to dismember the Union. "Democracy" holds that no wrong has been done, that no rights have been forfeited, that their Southern brethren have done nothing but what was perfectly legitimate, and that they are oppressed by "Radical tyranny" without any just cause whatever. Suppose that when Buchanan was elected in 1856 the New England States which voted for Fremont had revolted, and a bloody war, ending in their subjugation, had been the result—does any one suppose that the "Democracy" would have been so forgiving and lenient as they now are toward the South? The question is hardly a debatable one.

Tone of the "Democratic" Press

We cannot afford to give much space to current "Democratic" literature, but we make room occasionally for an item. Here's one from the Iuka (Miss.) Gazette, which shows the high toned style prevalent in that part of the country:

> The Southern people will never follow the crazy "God and morality," negro worshipping, spoon stealing, white-man hating, outside of the Constitution standing, black and white blood mixing, woman crowing, baby-strangling, cow pronouncing, hell-deserving, New England Yankee-clock peddling, chicken-stealing, box ankled, bandy shanked, round shouldered, hypocritical, canting, psalm singing, cowardly, cut throat, slandering, vulgar, slimy mouthed, onion eating, whisky-drinking, sausage stuffing scoundrels.

This is severe, but the "Democratic" papers of the North are not far behind. The following, from the Albion (Mich.) Mirror, indicates that certain Democratic editors in those parts are like our own Beriah, "on the eve of revolution."

> We are not disposed to be alarmed, but what is the use of crying peace when there is no peace? The people must arouse—the tocsin must be sounded—and if needs be blood must again flow. To an American what is nationality without liberty? Down with the usurpers! Open the veins of the besotted tyrants Edmunds, Drake Sumner, Chandler, Stevens, Wade, and all who are engaged in this foul conspiracy, and let their blood flow, and that, too, freely, should they attempt such a consummation.

In 1861, the Democratic press of Oregon teemed with articles of which the following extracts from the Portland Advertiser are a sample:

> We have no faith that Congress can do aught to save the country. It may vote appropriations to prosecute a civil war, exhaust the wealth and energies of the country to spread sorrow and desolation throughout the land, and in the name of freedom maintain a reign of terror as disgraceful to the enlightened age in which it occurs as it is mournful to contemplate.
> The Republicans have destroyed the Union and now are about to add murder to their catalogue of evils, merely because of a difference of opinion with their Southern fellow citizens.

Every Democratic paper in the State of Oregon, and every Democrat of prominence in the State except those who united with the Republicans and formed the Union party talked and argued against "coercion." But Smith says his party favored the prosecution of the war.

L F Grover lately made a speech at St Louis, Marion county. A gentleman who heard it reports to the Record that "it was amusing to hear Grover talk against the mixture of the races, and then suddenly comprehending his situation, with half his audience composed of Democratic half-breed voters, try to explain his position away and make it so indefinite that it would do no harm." We didn't learn that the Democracy of St Louis had gained anything by the operation.

The telegraph informs us that the Democratic Governor of California presided yesterday at a Chinese dinner, in San Francisco. Of course all the Democratic celebrities were present. What is the country coming to when the champions of the "white man's government" will thus put themselves on an "equality" with a lot of "degraded, rice eating Chinamen?" Will not the Democratic organs of Oregon give their outraged friends indignant dissertations on this theme.

Probable Enough

[From the Sacramento Bee.]

> As the chivalry has have been routed "horse foot and dragoons," in the late primary in San Francisco, and will not have a voice in the State or District Conventions to represent the commercial metropolis, it is certain that Axtell whom they hate, will be nominated for Congress and possibly men of his advanced Democratic ideas will be placed upon the ticket as Presidential Electors, while a sop may be thrown to Cerberus by allowing the free-eaters to secure the delegates to New York, although if Haight have any idea of being on the ticket he must, if necessary and in self defense, battle against any such concessions, for they would, whenever chance offered swing him as high as Haman. Well Axtell nominated, what then?—and that he will be is a foregone conclusion, for he has secured a majority of the Convention already. We said the other day that the Insurance Commissioner was a good Democrat, because he voted the Union ticket, and we may now say that Axtell is a good Republican because, although voting for and being voted for by Democrats, he boldly announces Republican doctrine, and declares that those of his own party who do not come up to his standard are political mummies. What will be the course of the Chivalry in the Axtell canvass? We predict now, that if he make it on the basis of his reconstruction speech—for he favors the reconstruction of his party as well as of the Southern States—they will vote for Pixley as the lesser evil. In fact the Union people of San Francisco and the lower counties must look sharp after their nominee for Congress whoever he may be, and must be cautious who he shall be, for stranger things have happened than to see, as might be the case, the Democrat sustaining Republican principle, and the Republican the Democratic!
>
> If the Chivalry can they will tamper with the Union nominee down there, and vote for and elect him in preference to Axtell, and if he is not a firm man with his convictions well rooted he may waver in the faith. If however, a man of principle is put up against Axtell and the latter stick to his present advanced position it will not matter much which of them shall be elected—but in that case it would please the Chivalry best to have Axtell beaten.
> This is no new fangled notion that the M C has got into his head. He, at the St Patrick's festival in San Francisco some two years ago pronounced sentiments similar to those contained in his reconstruction speech. They were commented on largely at the time and the Amador Ledger, his old country paper, where he used to be District Attorney, expressed surprise at the utterance whereupon Axtell took occasion to write to that journal asserting that he had always entertained them. He is a favorite with the Irish Americans. They carried the primaries for him now, they nominated him before, and it is to be expected that they will stick to him so long as he declares for freedom to all men and battles for the legal rights of all. If he behaves himself Axtell may become the new Broderick of the "regenerated" Democracy. He may leave Casserly, Haight and such men far behind to linger and die.

Benjamin J. Davis, a maimed Confederate soldier, who was Clerk of the Supreme Court for Lumpkin county, Georgia, has been removed from office by Gen. Meade, for the crime of being Secretary of a Democratic Club.—St Louis Times

Now state it the other way—"Benjamin J Davis, Secretary of a Democratic Club, who was Clerk of the Superior Court for Lumpkin county, Georgia has been removed from office by Gen. Meade for the crime of being a rebel soldier." General Meade had no doubt of the fellow's entire fitness for Secretary of a Democratic Club!

THE STEAMER JOHN L. STEPHENS not lost, but has arrived at Portland, and brought to KOHN & FISHEL the largest and best assortment of Gentlemen's Spring and Summer Suits, the latest style, and of the best material that has been offered in this city for years. The ladies have not been forgotten. They will find by an inspection of the stock just arrived, that their wants have been anticipated by a selection of dry goods the equal of which is not often presented here.

DIED:

In this city April 30th Frankie, infant son of W. S. and Juliette Hern, aged 11 months.

Funeral will take place at 2 o'clock to-day from the residence of the parents, corner of First and Morrison streets. Friends of the family are invited to attend.

The Roman correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette writes that great anxiety is felt for the health of the Pope. The Holy Father has lately had several epileptic fits to which he was subject in his youth but from which he had not suffered for many years. Dr Viale Prela his physician has remonstrated with him on his efforts in giving audiences and attending ceremonies and told him that his continuance in such a course would endanger his life. The Pope took the reproof in good part.

Seymour s speech reads as if he were addressing Pendleton in the language of St Paul "I would that you were both almost and altogether such as I am except these bonds "—Chicago Journal

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!

A Pure and Powerful Tonic,

Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the

STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels

Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache General Debility Nervousness, Depression of Spirits Constipation Colic Intermittent Fevers Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER S STOMACH BITTERS This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element no fiery excitant but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this Tonic and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Langour find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated In cases of Constitutional Weakness Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age it exercises the electric influence In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant When the powers of nature are relaxed it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them

Last but not least it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day

SOLD EVERYWHERE.

During the evening's [illegible], there will be an intermission during [illegible] and refreshments will be served. The [illegible] will begin promptly at half past seven o'clock.

Oregon Products.—Arrived yesterday per steamer Senator, 3,300 qr sks flour, 22 boxes eggs, 14 cases lard, 8 cases bacon, [illegible] cases hams, 25 sks middlings. Per steamer Alert, 1,000 qr sks flour, 1,192 gunnies wheat, 80 sks barley, 20 cases bacon, 5 boxes apples, 5 bales woolen goods, 10 hlf bbls lard.

Democratic Precinct Nominations.—The delegates from Washington precinct, yesterday nominated M. [illegible] Bull for Justice of the Peace and James Bothwell for Constable.

Wool From California.—The John L. Stephens brought up another large lot of wool from California, for the Oregon City Woolen Mills.

New Style Business Coats.—Barman Bros. new business coats are the most elegant garments in Portland. Their new shaped pantaloons are worn by all fashionable men. The suits made in their merchant tailoring establishment are now leading the fashions in Portland.

Furniture.—We call the attention of those in want of furniture to the advertisement of Hurgren & Shindler. We have seen their warerooms, and must say that we have never seen a finer selection of furniture. Messrs. H. & S. has a well established business buying their Eastern goods direct from the manufacturers. Parties purchasing in their line may rely upon honorable dealing and low prices.

Great Western Circus.—There will be a performance by this circus on Saturday afternoon and again in the evening. The great scenic play of Dick Turpin will be presented, introducing Mr. Barthol mew's beautiful trained horse, Black Cloud, as the highwayman's steed, Black Bess. During the stay of the company at Victoria, this piece had a highly successful run of two weeks.

Albino Exhibition and Lecture.—An Albino woman will be exhibited at Oro Fino Hall this evening, and the exhibition will be accompanied by a lecture on the physiology of the human skin, illustrative of the courses of various colors of the hair, etc. This Albino is a woman of Spanish extraction, with snow white hair—the natural color.

The Roman correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette writes that great anxiety is felt for the health of the Pope. The Holy Father has lately had several epileptic fits, to which he was subject in his youth, but from which he had not suffered for many years. Dr. Viale Prela, his physician, has remonstrated with him on his efforts in giving audiences and attending ceremonies, and told him that his continuance in such a course would endanger his life. The Pope took the reproof in good part.

Seymour's speech reads as if he were addressing Pendleton in the language of St. Paul: "I would that you were both almost and altogether such as I am, except these bonds."—Chicago Journal.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the
STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels,
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.
NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.
Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.
As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.
Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and [illegible] of the day.
SOLD EVERYWHERE.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees [illegible] of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior [illegible] for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of all consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

NASBY.

THE GOOD OLD TIMES—HOW A PLANTATION MANAGED AFTER THE STYLE OF 1860 LOOKS IN 1868—MR. NASBY FINDS SUCH AN ONE, AND REPORTS THEREON.

POST OFFIS, CONFEDRIT X ROADS,
(Wich is in the State uv Kentucky.)
March 30, 1868.

On my return from the ornery and cussid State of Michigan, I fell into a state uv despondency from wich I found it difficult to recover. The horrors uv stayin in a community totelly [illegible] to the exilerashun uv the flowin bole, totelly impervious to the soothin inflooence uv the floods wich we in Kentucky eggsist onto, and where the Democrisy are in a hopeless minority, made reason totter onto her throne, and intelleck to reel in a highly rediculous manner. To dissipate the impression, I borrered Bascom's mule and Deekin Pogram's saddle bags, and fillin the first with oats, and the latter with a loaf uv bread and a gallon uv whisky, madly plunged off into the interior uv the State, that I mite in rooral solitoodes giv full vent to the melancholy that oppressed me.

Two days travel up the mountins brot me to the most [illegible] county uv the State. Remote from railroads, off uv the stage lines, and not within several days' journey uv telegrafs, it was trooly a Arcajen spot. Here wuz the log cabin in all its primitive simplicity—here wuz [illegible] onto wich there wuz no mill—here wuz roads without no fences—here was women without no hoops.

Ridin along musin onto the quiet beauty uv [illegible], I heered a swingin, swishin sound a whislin thro the air; a dull, heavy thud, and then! oh joy! a shreek! I wuz in a wood, but there wuz a cleerin beyond, and from that cleerin the sound proceeded.

Puttin spurs to my steed, or rather, to git down from the elegancies uv descriptive writin to actooal fact, thumpin Bascom's mule over the head with the club I carried, I soon emerged from the forest and beheld a scen wich [illegible] my heart leep with joy. There wuz a house, nigger quarters—a whippin post, and, good Hevens, that I shood be so blest! a nigger tied to it and a vigorous old man uv sixty, with a broad brimmed hat and a [illegible], a layin it to him good!

Was I awake or wuz I dreamin! Is these reel or wuz I the victim of some plesent hallucination? Dismountin, I rushed up to him and fell onto his neck. "Now," sed I in extacy, "let thy servant depart in peace!"

He [illegible] me orf and continuin coolly till he hed reached thirty lashes, the old gentleman [illegible] standin by to untie him and take him to his quarters, rub his delitefully [illegible] with salt and water, and turnin he exclaimed, "who in blazes are yoo?"

"O [illegible] them words [illegible]!" sed I, strikin a [illegible] "I've been in Michigan, and them words is music to me!"

"[illegible] who in thunder are yoo?"

"A Dimocrat—a ante-war Dimocrat—wich [illegible] thrown in fur effect, but they've bin taken from me by a [illegible]. To see yoo, a troo Sutherner, [illegible] uv em in troo Suthern style, quite onmans me. Speek! how hev yoo managed it?"

Slowly rollin over his quid, in a quiet contemplative manner, he asked me to his house. On [illegible] it, we sat down and he told me these:

[illegible] He knowed uv the [illegible] then, but he hed kep it keerfully [illegible] the niggers, ez hed all the planters in the [illegible]. Determined that solely for the good uv the helpless nigger one [illegible] shood be held sakrid—that her old [illegible] shood be [illegible] at least in one place, he hed held em all in the same condishen ez before the war. The nabors for ten miles square hed [illegible] a solemn oath to keep their [illegible] likewise to shoot at sight all uv em wich attempted to run away or even to [illegible] other niggers, and that by [illegible] it wuz, [illegible] em, they hed [illegible]

[illegible]

"[illegible] bein chawed by the dorgs to do his regler work?"

"[illegible] so. He played orf a little while [illegible], but we [illegible] him until he wuz willin to giv up his [illegible] and go at it. He [illegible]"

"[illegible] got well uv that charge uv [illegible]"

"[illegible], no! he died. He tuk cold in the leg [illegible] He wuz the best hand I hed on the place. O! my friend observe the effeck [illegible] He giv me too much uv [illegible], I put a charge uv shot into him, and now he aint wuth the powder that I [illegible] the shot. Oh, how [illegible] with that [illegible] that [illegible] up the run [illegible]"

"Yes, [illegible] him of [illegible] combin her hair, and [illegible] He took the Noo York [illegible] gave him ten minutes [illegible] out we shot [illegible] family is still on the place, but [illegible] will probably lower soon, ez we shel burn the [illegible]"

"[illegible] is Kitty?"

"[illegible] do much with her. Sence her baby wuz [illegible] she hez never bin wuth much, and to git [illegible] to Simpson, on the [illegible] Branch, for a bay mare of his [illegible] me to play seven-up, best three in five, for the lot, and [illegible]. The baby hez a strong, healthy look, and I giv it over to big Lize to bring up by [illegible] Kitty to Ambrose, off on the West Branch, and she wuz carried over there yesterday."

"[illegible] come in. It's well nigh nite. Come in to supper."

We [illegible] supper, and afterwards prayers, and [illegible] that cut throat loo for dollar stakes.

The next day wuz Sunday, and a most happy Sunday it wuz for me. The preecher supported [illegible] happy floor wuz uv the reel stock, wich is unfortunitly goin out. His sermon in the mornin wuz a most movin discourse [illegible] inkulcatin the grate trooth that niggers wuz created from the beginnin for the sole purpose uv bein the servants uv the [illegible], and, incidentally, he wove in a most conclosive defense uv the [illegible] uv ketchin niggers with dorgs. To the [illegible] justice, tempered with with sich Christian forbearance ez he felt he could afford to the servant entire [illegible] it was the will uv the Lord. Ez the old man wuz in his perorashen, there wuz [illegible] up the swamp the sound uv dorgs. The yelps in the distance, ez faint ez the whisper uv a [illegible] and nearer, until the melojus voice uv the whole pack wuz a chime in our ears. The preecher stopt and pricked up his ears, ez did every one in the congregashen. Then [illegible] uv a rifle wuz herd and a shreek follered it.

"Be quiet!" sed the good old man. "It's nothin. [illegible] wuz John, run away last Thursday, and this mornin Perkins started out after him with Dubtin's dorgs. It's all over now, and yoo kin render Perkins no assistance. That shot finisht the desprit man, and the dorgs are by this time onto him. O, why will these perverse spirits try us so? Why will they run off and make the ketchen uv em even on the Sabbath a work uv necessity and mercy."

Just then a fresh yelp from the hounds showed that the preecher wuz wrong. The nigger hed not been hit, but had played possum [illegible] run. The congregashen then startid for the door and in a minnit they were out pell-mell surroundin the clump uv woods into wich he had taken refuge. In a few minits the dorgs chased him out, and a revolver shot laid him a cold corpse. Peacefully they returned to the church where the paster, his cheeks glowin with the exercise, pronounced the benedickshen and the congregashen separated.

Gladly wood I hev stayed there, but it wuz impossible. For me the conflick. I am needed where there is fightin to do. The next day I borrered seventeen dollars uv my kind entertainer and rode away feelin that one day thus spent would compensate me for all I endoored among the Michigan scoffers. Wood ther were more sich oasises.

How the Germans Make Love.

Oh! you American lovers, who rejoice in your secret walks, your lovely rides, your escorts from evening prayer-meetings, those well-established rendezvous for lovers; you can indulge in secret sighs, billet doux, and poetry, little do you realize the inconvenience with which a modern German courtship is carried on. There are no secret interviews and smuggled letters to inspire the heart of an amorous German. If he has anything to say, he says it before anybody and everybody who happens to be in the room. If he calls upon the mistress of his affections he beholds her quietly knitting a stocking in the midst of the family circle; and with all this array of spectators must he unbosom his heart and woo his bride. By unbosoming his heart, I don't mean proposing. Unless he can watch a second behind a door in a ball-room, or elude for an instant the watchful care of the young lady's guardians, that momentous question, "Will you have me?" and its delicious answer, "Yes, dearest," will never be whispered between them at all. He must go to Paterfamilias, or some married friend who, as it is, are doubtless as [illegible] as her feature, and make them the [illegible]. When all is arranged, the engagement announced, and the romance entirely over, then he sees the lady alone, take her occasionally to the theater (when he wishes to do this before the engagement he must invite also the mother or the aforementioned withered relation), and indulge in a walk once a week. This extreme reserve seems at first glance the more unnatural, from the fact that the Germans are essentially a romantic and poetical people. Their literature, their love of music and worship of art show this, no less than the mistaken and romantic attempts at chivalry among the students, and the tenderness and kindness one meets with everywhere; their politeness, rough though it sometimes is, and the interest, almost curiosity, which is taken in your affairs. But Germans have to look beyond mere flirtation and love-making. They are usually poor, and must choose a wife as the Vicar of Wakefield did, "for wear." A flashy, brilliant girl who lacked the usual domestic instruction, would never do for them, and a lady who should throw off her reserve and openly accept the attentions of gentlemen, would if she succeeded in keeping her character, never win a husband. German men are not easily caught by appearances. There are some sad stories connected with German engagements, owing to the excessive poverty of the men, and the necessity for almost every one to work his way from the bottom of the ladder. Frau Dr. S. told me with tears in her eyes of an elderly lady living near her who has been engaged fifty years. At no time has her lover earned enough to marry upon, and now both are gray-haired, and though their hopes of marriage in life are over, they keep their vows sacred for another world. There are many such cases, doubtless, where a whole lifetime is one continued struggle ended only with death. The struggle is not always on the part of the bridegrooms, for there is a custom here appalling to a man with several daughters and a small income. In America, if a lady consents to deliver up her precious self, the sacrifice is considered by the enraptured lover quite sufficient; but here the lady must bring as a dowry all the furniture, linen and household utensils; in fact, everything necessary to housekeeping. The absolute dismay of an honest German with eight charming daughters, and some five hundred thalers income, can be conceived where such a custom is in vogue. Perhaps this is one reason why the mothers do not spend their lives like the English dowagers, in constant endeavors to knock their daughters off to the lowest bidder (I fear that "lowest bidder" will not be understood by the speculative Yankees)—I mean to the man who will take the [illegible]est amount of money with them, for Englishmen never think of taking the incumberances of a wife without the jointure.—[illegible] cor. Boston Gazette.

UNION PLATFORM.

1. Resolved, That it is the highest duty of every American citizen to maintain against all their enemies the integrity of the Union and the paramount authority of the Constitution and laws of the United States, and to preserve at the ballot-box the fruits of the late war.

2. Resolved, That the work of reconstruction of the Southern States belongs to the legislative department of the government and that we [illegible] the thirteenth and fourteenth amendments to the Constitution and the acts of Congress commonly called the reconstruction acts, as the best plan yet proposed for the restoration of the States lately in rebellion to their former relations to the Federal Government.

3. Resolved, That we are in favor of admitting the rebel States to representation in Congress at the earliest practicable moment which the public safety will permit.

4. Resolved, That the national debt was necessarily contracted to save the nation['s] life and ought to be honestly paid, and we condemn every scheme devised for the repudiation of the whole or any part of the debt as disgraceful to the Republic and unjust to its citizens, and that the proposition to pay in legal tender notes those debts [illegible] to be paid in specie, is only a milder term for repudiation.

5. Resolved, That, under the Constitution, the Federal Government has no right to interfere with the elective franchise in any State having representation in Congress and whose civil government is not overthrown by rebellion.

6. Resolved, That the right of expatriation is the natural and inherent right of all people and indispensable to the enjoyment of the rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that while the citizen owes allegiance to the Government, the Government owes protection to the citizen, and that it is the duty of the Government of the United States to protect all its citizens, native born and naturalized, in the full enjoyment of their rights as citizens of the United States, wherever and under whatever color or pretence those rights may be invaded.

7. Resolved, That the foreign immigration, which in the past has added so much to the wealth, development of resources, and increase of power of this nation, the asylum of the oppressed of all nations, should be fostered and encouraged by a liberal and just policy; and that we sympathize with all people everywhere who are struggling for civil and religious liberty.

8. Resolved, That the thanks of the American people are due to the soldiers and sailors of the army and navy who have periled their lives in defense of their country and in vindication of the honor of its flag; that the nation owes to them some permanent recognition of their patriotism and their valor, and ample and permanent provision for those of their survivors who have received disabling and honorable wounds in the service of their country; and that the memories of those who have fallen in its defense shall be held in grateful and everlasting remembrance.

9. Resolved, That we are in favor of liberal appropriations of land and money, by the Government, to aid in the construction of railroads.

Willamette Lodge No. 2, F. & A. M.—Holds its Regular Communications on the 1st and 3d Mondays of each month at 7 o'clock P. M. Brethren in good standing are invited to attend.

SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, flatulency of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

H. W. SHIPLEY & CO.,
MANUFACTURERS OF
SHIPLEY'S PATENT PACIFIC
TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

OF WHICH THE ABOVE IS AN ILLUSTRATION, has FOUR SETS OF BUCKETS, AND USES THREE-FOURTHS OF THE WATER TWICE.

The old high-priced, unequalled and unrivalled wheel has been PLAYED OUT by a fair working trial made by Mr. H. Kelly, at his saw mill, and the public can see what he says as to the capacity of the two wheels in the following testimonial over his own signature:

MR. H. W. SHIPLEY—Sir: In reply to your inquiry as to how I like your Pacific Turbine Wheel, I have to say that I have used one, over-shot and three Leffel wheels—10, 13 and 15 inch diameters. When I substituted your 15 inch wheel for the 13-inch Leffell wheel, though unfinished, it worked the machinery like a top, using 55 ft of water per minute more than the 13-inch Leffell. At your request I subsequently took your wheel out that it might be finished, and then I put in a 15-inch Leffel; but it gave no better power than yours while it used 52 cubic feet more water, per minute. After some months, I replaced your wheel and am still using it with the most satisfactory results. I have subjected it to some severe tests. For instance, while running the circular saw in a log which squared 15 inches, I added the planer with a 9 inch knife, cutting from one-eighth to one fourth of an inch depth, without in the least slacking the speed. After thorough tests of both wheels, I am satisfied that your wheel with gates one-eighth of an inch open gives as much power as the Leffell with gates one-third open. At half gate, your wheel gives double the power of the Leffel at half gate. At full gate, the power of yours exceeds that of the Leffel, by from ten to twelve per cent. At quarter gate, the Leffel holds no comparison with yours at quarter gate.

N. B. Mr. Shipley was not present at either of the trials of his wheel, he being sick at the first, and absent from the State, at the second trial.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIAL

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases. [illegible]

How many thousands of persons, both [illegible] male, are there who are suffering out a miserable [illegible] ence from the effects of secret indulgences, [illegible] absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, [illegible] ted and disfigured faces and their broken-down [illegible] tions, disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid [illegible] sands suffer until death shuts the scene. Let [illegible] guardians, friends, attend to those who are any of these horrible life-destroying maladies [illegible] they are cured for and cured before it be too late, [illegible] them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, [illegible] made private disease his especial study for years, and [illegible] is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without [illegible] easy or any injurious drugs. It is important [illegible] who are afflicted, or to those who are [illegible] welfare of their friends, to be careful of the [illegible] tended doctors who infest all cities, [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days, [illegible] public by using the names of eminent [illegible] European and other places. Be therefore [illegible] strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands [illegible] charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of [illegible] solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulg[illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an almost [illegible] producing, with unerring certainty, the [illegible] of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by [illegible] ical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark [illegible] the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, [illegible] the rustling of leaves and rattling of [illegible] about the loins, weak[illegible] of the limbs, [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence, [illegible] [illegible] a dislike to form [illegible] a disposition to shun society, loss of [illegible] flushes, pimples and various eruptions about [illegible] furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, [illegible] sweats, [illegible] mania and frequent insanity. [illegible] not obtained, should apply immediately, either [illegible] or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new [illegible] entific mode of treating this disease, which [illegible] effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give [illegible] Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove [illegible] rily to him that he was cured of this disease [illegible] of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who [illegible] under any of these fearful maladies, should not [illegible] sacred responsibility resting upon them [illegible] obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give his patient a written instrument, binding [illegible] radical and permanent cure, or make no [illegible]

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT [illegible] by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating [illegible] toms, length of time the disease has continued [illegible] medicines promptly forwarded, free from [illegible] curiosity, to any part of the country, with full [illegible] directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in [illegible] ter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks [illegible] who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, [illegible] Some of the self-styled doctors, whose [illegible] found in the daily and weekly newspa[pers] [illegible] cisco and other places, are tradesmen, [illegible] lazy to work at their trades. Some are [illegible] makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence [illegible] etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, [illegible] will not find their Medical Institutes in it, [illegible] find their former occupations in it. Look [illegible] tory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to [illegible] t on is to make enquiry—it will cost you [illegible] may save you many regrets; for, as [illegible] cians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, [illegible] safety in trusting any of them until you know what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not decoy [illegible] exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, private [illegible] letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy [illegible] call at his office of his ability to treat [illegible] proposes to cure.
